

Membership Pledge of the American Venous Forum

As a condition of membership in the American Venous Forum, I pledge:

- To practice evidence based venous and lymphatic medicine and/or surgery with integrity, courtesy and compassion.
- To be accountable for all my actions
- To provide the best care for my patients above all else
- To treat all without bias to gender, race or nationality
- To maintain confidentiality in my patient and professional interactions
- To collaborate, cooperate and respect my professional colleagues
- To engage in scientific knowledge and medical education in the art and science of venous and lymphatic practice.
- To provide accurate information without misrepresentation concerning venous and lymphatic disease to my patients and the public
- I make this pledge freely and upon my honor

Thereby, I pledge to abide by the American Venous Forum code of ethics.
